STORY · LESSON 1

Omar Is Late

It is 7:50, and Omar is running. Read the story, then read it again from Omar's point of view.

Say what is happening now | Ask: What are you doing? | Tell a story as it happens

7:50 Omar is running

7:52 a rickshaw is coming

7:58 he is looking at his watch

8:00 the door is closed

Friday! Adam is sleeping

1 The story

It is 7:50 in the morning. Omar is running down the street. His bag is jumping on his back. He is late for class!

A rickshaw is coming. "Stop, please!" The driver is smiling. "Where are you going?" "To Future Vision Institute. Quickly, please!" Now the rickshaw is flying through the streets. Omar is looking at his watch. It is 7:58.

The rickshaw stops at the institute. Omar is paying the driver, and he is running to the door. But the door is closed. There are no students. It is very quiet.

Omar calls Adam. "Adam! Where are you? What are you doing?" Adam is in bed. "I'm sleeping, Omar. Today is Friday!"

2 Questions and answers

Answer fast. Short answers are fine.

1 What time is it?
It's 7:50.

2 What is Omar doing?
He's running down the street.

3 Is he late for class?
Yes, he is.

4 What is coming?
A rickshaw.

5 Is the driver smiling?
Yes, he is.

6 Where is Omar going?
To Future Vision Institute.

7 What is Omar looking at?
His watch.

8 Is the door of the institute open?
No, it isn't. It's closed.

2 Questions and answers (continued)

9 Are there students there?
No, there aren't.

10 Who does Omar call?
Adam.

11 What is Adam doing?
He's sleeping.

12 Why is the institute closed?
Because today is Friday!

3 Point of view

Now Omar tells the story.

O

It's 7:50 in the morning. I'm running down the street. My bag is jumping on my back. I'm late for class!

A rickshaw is coming. "Stop, please!" The driver is smiling. "Where are you going?" "To Future Vision Institute. Quickly, please!" Now we are flying through the streets. I'm looking at my watch. It's 7:58.

The rickshaw stops at the institute. I'm paying the driver, and I'm running to the door. But the door is closed. There are no students.

I call Adam. "Adam! What are you doing?" "I'm sleeping, Omar. Today is Friday!"

4 What did you learn?

You learned the present continuous.

We use it for things that are happening now, at this moment.

I	HE · SHE · IT	YOU · WE · THEY
I am running.	He is running.	We are running.
I'm not sleeping.	She isn't sleeping.	They aren't sleeping.
Am I late?	Is he smiling?	What are you doing?

be + verb + -ing
He is running. They are sleeping.

Now, at this moment
Look! A rickshaw is coming.

run → running · smile → smiling
Some verbs double the last letter. Others lose the e.

QUESTIONS What are you doing? I'm reading. / I'm studying.

5 New words

late	after the right time	rickshaw	a small taxi with three wheels
driver	a person who drives a car or a bus	quickly	fast
watch	a small clock you wear on your arm	closed	not open

TOPIC · LESSON 2

Getting Around

Buses, minibuses, rickshaws and taxis, and a busy bus station.

Name ways to travel · Say what is good about each one · Describe a busy place

1 Read

How do people get around in the city? Many people take the bus. Buses are cheap, but they are often full. A minibus is small and fast, and it stops when you ask.

A rickshaw has three wheels. It is great for short trips, and the driver can take you to the door. A taxi is more expensive, but it is comfortable.

Look at the bus station now. It is very busy. People are waiting for their buses, the drivers are calling "Market! Market!", and a man is selling cold water and juice.

2 Ways to get around bus

big · cheap · often full minibus small · fast

rickshaw
three wheels · short trips

taxi
expensive · comfortable

3 Questions and answers

Answer fast. Short answers are fine.

1 Are buses cheap or expensive?

STORY · LESSON 10

Did Omar Cook Fish?

Last level, Omar said "Next week, fish!" Did he do it? Read the story, then read it again from Omar's point of view.

Say what you didn't do | Ask: Did you…? | Answer: Yes, I did. / No, I didn't.

1 The story

Last week, Omar wanted to cook fish. He went to the market and bought a big fish. But he didn't know how to cook it, and he didn't call his mother. "I can do it," he said.

He didn't clean the fish well, and he didn't use much oil. He put it in a hot pan and didn't watch it. He was on his phone!

Soon the kitchen was full of smoke. Adam came in. "Did you burn the fish?" "Yes, I did," Omar said. "Can we eat it?" "No, we can't!"

So they didn't eat fish. They ate sandwiches again. The next day, Omar called his mother. "Did you watch the pan?" she asked. "No, I didn't." She laughed. "Next time, put down your phone!"

2 Questions and answers

Answer fast. Short answers are fine.

1 Did Omar want to cook fish?
Yes, he did.

2 Did he buy a small fish?
No, he didn't. He bought a big fish.

3 Did he know how to cook it?
No, he didn't.

4 Did he call his mother?

7 What was the kitchen full of?
Smoke.

8 Who came in?
Adam.

9 Did Omar burn the fish?
Yes, he did.

10 Did they eat the fish?
No, they didn't.

11 What did they eat?
Sandwiches, again.

12 What did his mother say?
"Next time, put down your phone!"

3 Point of view

Now Omar tells the story.

O Last week, I wanted to cook fish. I went to the market and bought a big fish. But I didn't know how to cook it, and I didn't call my mother. "I can do it," I said.

I didn't clean the fish well, and I didn't use much oil. I put it in a hot pan and didn't watch it. I was on my phone!

Soon the kitchen was full of smoke. Adam came in. "Did you burn the fish?" "Yes, I did."

So we didn't eat fish. We ate sandwiches again. The next day, I called my mother. "Did you watch the pan?" "No, I didn't." She laughed. "Next time, put down your phone!"

4 What did you learn?

You learned didn't and Did.

In the past simple, we say no with didn't and ask with Did. After them, the verb goes back to its first form.

PAST	NOT · QUESTIONS
He bought a big fish.	He didn't buy a small fish.
They ate sandwiches.	They didn't eat fish.
He burned the fish.	Did he burn the fish? Yes, he did.
She laughed.	Did she laugh? Yes, she did.

didn't = did not
We usually say didn't.

After didn't and Did: the first form
He didn't eat. Not: didn't ate.

The same for everyone
I didn't, she didn't, they didn't.

QUESTIONS Did you cook yesterday? Yes, I did. / No, I didn't.

5 New words

bought	the past of buy	oil	a yellow liquid we cook with smoke	the gray cloud that comes from fire	burn	cook too much
