STORY · LESSON 1

The New Student

A new level, a new student. Read the story, answer the questions, then read it again from Omar's point of view.

Say who people are | Say where people are from | Say how people feel

1 The story

Today is the first day of a new level. Adam and Sara are in the class. They are happy.

There is a new student. His name is Omar. He is from Port Sudan. He isn't from Khartoum. Port Sudan is a city on the Red Sea. It is hot, but it is beautiful.

Omar is nineteen. He is friendly, but he is a little nervous. It is his first day, and the students aren't his friends yet.

Mr. Ali is the teacher. He is kind and funny. "Welcome to the class, Omar!" Adam and Sara are friendly, too. Now Omar isn't nervous. He is happy.

2 Questions and answers

10 Who is the teacher?
Mr. Ali.

11 Is Mr. Ali kind?
Yes, he is. He's kind and funny.

12 Is Omar nervous now?
No, he isn't. He's happy.

The New Student (continued)

3 Point of view

Now Omar tells the story.

O

Today is the first day of a new level. I am a new student. My name is Omar. I'm from Port Sudan. I'm not from Khartoum. Port Sudan is a city on the Red Sea. It is hot, but it is beautiful.

I'm nineteen. I'm friendly, but I'm a little nervous. The students aren't my friends yet.

Mr. Ali is our teacher. He is kind and funny. Adam and Sara are friendly, too. Now I'm not nervous. I'm happy.

4 What did you learn?

You learned the verb be.

We use it to say who people are, where they are from, and how they feel.

I	HE · SHE · IT	YOU · WE · THEY
am	is	are
I'm	he's	they're
I'm not	he isn't	they aren't
Am I …?	Is he …?	Are you …?

Short forms: 'm · 's · 're
We usually speak with short forms: I'm, he's, they're.

Not: isn't · aren't
He isn't from Khartoum. They aren't his friends.

Questions: be comes first
He is nineteen. → Is he nineteen?

QUESTIONS Is he from Khartoum? Yes, he is. / No, he isn't.

5 New words

level	a stage in learning; Starter is the first level	city	a big town beautiful	very nice to look at	friendly	kind and nice to other people

TOPIC · LESSON 11

Numbers and Prices

Big numbers, prices, and how we buy things at the market.

Say big numbers · Ask the price · Ask How much and How many

1 Read

Numbers are everywhere, in prices, phone numbers, and times. We count in tens like this, and then we put two numbers together. We say 25 as twenty-five, and 150 as one hundred fifty.

At the market, prices are in Sudanese pounds. We ask about the price with How much. How much is it? How much are the oranges?

We buy fruit and vegetables by the kilo. For things we can count, like eggs and oranges, we ask How many. How many eggs do you want?

2 Count in tens

10 ten	20 twenty	30 thirty	40 forty	50 fifty
60 sixty	70 seventy	80 eighty	90 ninety	100 one hundred

3 Big numbers

150 one hundred fifty	500 five hundred	1,000 one thousand	2,500 two thousand five hundred
