STORY · LESSON 1

Eid in the Village

Adam's family has big plans for Eid. Read the plan, then read what really happened.

Talk about plans | Ask: What are you going to do? | Tell what happened after

1 The story

Next week is Eid. Adam's family is going to travel to his grandfather's village. It is a small village near the Nile, about three hours from Khartoum.

They are going to take the bus early in the morning. Tonight, Adam's mother is going to bake Eid cookies, and his father is going to buy new clothes for the children. Adam is going to wear a new white shirt.

In the village, they are going to visit all their uncles, aunts, and cousins. Adam's grandfather is going to sit under the big tree and tell old stories, and the children are going to play football by the river.

But there is one problem. Adam's little brother, Hamza, is very excited. "I'm going to eat one hundred cookies!" he says. His mother laughs. "You aren't going to eat one hundred, Hamza. You are going to eat two!"

2 Questions and answers

Answer fast. Short answers are fine.

1 When is Eid?
Next week.

2 Where is Adam's family going to travel?
To his grandfather's village.

3 Is the village big or small?
Small. It's near the Nile.

4 How far is it from Khartoum?
About three hours.

5 Are they going to take a bus or a taxi?
A bus, early in the morning.

6 What is Adam's mother going to bake?
Eid cookies.

7 Who is going to buy new clothes?
Adam's father.

8 What is Adam going to wear?
A new white shirt.

9 Who are they going to visit?
Their uncles, aunts, and cousins.

10 What is his grandfather going to do?
Sit under the big tree and tell old stories.

11 Where are the children going to play football?
By the river.

12 Is Hamza going to eat one hundred cookies?
No, he isn't. He's going to eat two!

3 Point of view

Now it is after Eid. Adam tells what happened.

Last week was Eid. My family traveled to my grandfather's village near the Nile. We took the bus early in the morning, and the trip was three hours long.

The night before, my mother baked Eid cookies, and my father bought new clothes for us. I wore a new white shirt.

In the village, we visited all our uncles, aunts, and cousins. My grandfather sat under the big tree and told old stories, and we played football by the river.

And Hamza? He ate two cookies, then three, then ten! My mother wasn't happy, but Hamza was!

4 What did you learn?

You learned be going to.

We use it for plans, things we decided to do in the future. After the plan happens, we use the past simple.

I	HE · SHE · IT	YOU · WE · THEY
I'm going to travel.	He's going to bake.	We're going to play.
I'm not going to go.	She isn't going to cook.	They aren't going to stay.
Am I going to win?	Is he going to come?	What are you going to do?

4 What did you learn? (continued)

be + going to + verb
We're going to visit our cousins.

For plans
tonight, tomorrow, next week, next year

Plan → past
Before Eid: we're going to travel. After Eid: we traveled.

QUESTIONS What are you going to do this weekend? I'm going to visit my family.

5 New words

village	a very small town in the country	bake	cook in an oven: bread, cakes, cookies
cookies	small sweet cakes	aunts	your father's or mother's sisters
river	a long line of moving water, like the Nile	excited	very happy about something that is coming

TOPIC · LESSON 2

Holidays in Sudan

The big holidays of the year, what people do, and this year's plans.

Name the holidays | Say what people do on them | Talk about holiday plans

1 Read

Sudan has many holidays. The two biggest are Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha. Eid al-Fitr comes at the end of Ramadan, the month of fasting. Eid al-Adha comes about two months later.

On Eid, people wear new clothes, visit their families, and eat a lot of cookies and sweets. Children get money and gifts. Sudan also has Independence Day on January 1. On this day in 1956, Sudan became independent.

This year, Sara's family is going to celebrate Eid at home. Her mother is going to bake cookies, and her uncles are going to come for lunch. Omar is going to travel to Port Sudan to see his family. He is going to be on the bus for about twelve hours!

2 The holidays

Eid al-Fitr
after Ramadan · new clothes and sweets

Eid al-Adha
about two months later · family and food

Independence Day
January 1 · since 1956

3 What people do

visit family and friends

wear
new clothes

give gifts and money to children

eat
cookies and sweets

4 Questions and answers

Answer fast. Short answers are fine.

1 What are the two biggest holidays?
Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha.

2 When does Eid al-Fitr come?
At the end of Ramadan.

3 What do children get on Eid?
Money and gifts.

4 When is Independence Day?
On January 1.

5 Where is Sara's family going to celebrate Eid?
At home.

6 How long is Omar going to be on the bus?
About twelve hours.

5 New words

holidays	special days with no work and no school
gifts	things you give to someone
independent	free; not ruled by another country
fasting	not eating or drinking during the day became	the past of become
celebrate	do something special on a happy day

CONVERSATION · LESSON 3

What Are You Going to Do?

Talking about plans after the course

Ask about plans | Talk about your future | Give a reason

1 Read the conversation

It is the last week of the course. Adam and Sara talk about their plans.

SARA	The course is almost finished! What are you going to do next?
ADAM	I'm going to take the next level. And I'm going to start a computer course here, too.
SARA	A computer course? That's a great idea.
ADAM	Yes. Pilots need good English and good computer skills!
SARA	So you're still going to be a pilot?
ADAM	Of course! What about you? Are you going to study engineering?
SARA	Yes, I am. I'm going to apply to the university next year.
ADAM	Are you going to continue English, too?
SARA	Definitely. Engineers need English, too!
ADAM	Then see you in the next level!

2 Useful phrases

ASK ABOUT PLANS
What are you going to do next?
— I'm going to take the next level.

ASK ABOUT A DREAM
Are you still going to be a pilot?
— Of course!

ASK BACK
What about you?

GIVE A REASON
Pilots need good English.

SAY YES STRONGLY
Definitely.

SAY GOODBYE
See you in the next level!

3 New words

skills — things you can do well

apply — ask in writing to join a school or a job definitely — yes, for sure engineering — the study and work of engineers

university — a place to study after school

STORY · LESSON 4

The Best Phone

Omar wants a new phone. Which one is the best? Read the story, then read Omar's story of that day.

Compare two things | Say which one is the best | Give reasons for a choice

1 The story

Omar's phone is old. It is slower than his friends' phones, and its camera is bad. "I need a new phone," he says. So on Saturday, he goes to the phone shop with Adam.

The seller shows them three phones. "This red phone is cheaper than the others, but it is smaller. This black phone is bigger, and its camera is better. And this gold phone is the most expensive. It is the fastest and the best phone in the shop."

Omar looks at the prices. The red phone is cheap, but the screen is too small. The black phone is nice, but it is more expensive than his plan. The gold phone is the most beautiful, but it costs more than his money for three months!

Then Omar has an idea. He goes home, opens his old phone, and changes the battery and the screen. Now it is faster than before, and it works well. "Do you need a new phone?" Adam asks. Omar smiles. "No. My old phone is the best phone for me!"

2 Questions and answers

Answer fast. Short answers are fine.

1 Is Omar's phone new or old?
Old.

2 Is it faster or slower than his friends' phones?
Slower.

3 Where does Omar go on Saturday?
To the phone shop, with Adam.

4 Which phone is the cheapest?
The red phone.

5 Is the red phone bigger than the others?
No, it isn't. It's smaller.

6 Which phone has a better camera, the red one or the black one?
The black one.

7 Which phone is the most expensive?
The gold phone.

8 Is the gold phone the fastest?
Yes, it is. It's the fastest and the best.

9 Why doesn't Omar buy the red phone?
The screen is too small.

10 Why doesn't he buy the gold phone?
It costs more than his money for three months.

11 What does Omar change in his old phone?
The battery and the screen.

12 Which phone is the best for Omar?
His old phone!

3 Point of view

Now Omar tells the story of last Saturday.

O My phone was old. It was slower than my friends' phones, and its camera was bad. So last Saturday, I went to the phone shop with Adam.

The seller showed us three phones. The red phone was cheaper than the others, but it was smaller. The black phone was bigger, and its camera was better. The gold phone was the most expensive. It was the fastest and the best phone in the shop.

But the red phone's screen was too small, the black phone was more expensive than my plan, and the gold phone cost more than my money for three months!

Then I had an idea. I went home, opened my old phone, and changed the battery and the screen. Now it is faster than before. My old phone is the best phone for me!

4 What did you learn?

You learned comparatives and superlatives.

We use them to compare two things (cheaper than), or to say which one is first in a group (the cheapest).

WORD	TWO THINGS	THE FIRST OF ALL
cheap	cheaper than	the cheapest big	bigger than	the biggest expensive	more expensive than	the most expensive
good	better than	the best

Short words: -er · -est
cheap → cheaper → the cheapest

Long words: more · the most expensive → more expensive → the most expensive

Different: better · the best good → better → the best.
bad → worse → the worst

QUESTIONS Which phone is the best? The gold one. It's the fastest.

5 New words

slower	not as fast	camera	the part of a phone that takes photos screen	the glass part of a phone that you look at	costs	has a price of battery	the part that gives a phone its power	works	does what it should do

TOPIC · LESSON 5

Cities of Sudan

Four cities, and what makes each one special.

Name cities of Sudan | Compare places | Say what a place is famous for

1 Read

Sudan is a big country with many cities. Khartoum is the capital. It is where the Blue Nile and the White Nile meet. Across the river is Omdurman, the biggest city in Sudan.

Port Sudan is on the Red Sea, about twelve hours from Khartoum by bus. It is hotter and more humid than Khartoum in summer, and it has the busiest port in the country.

Kassala is in the east, near the mountains. Many people think it is the most beautiful city in Sudan. It is famous for its green gardens and its fruit, like bananas and oranges.

Which city is the best? Every city is different, and every city has something special.

2 Four cities

Khartoum
the capital · where the two Niles meet

Omdurman
across the river · the biggest city

Port Sudan
on the Red Sea · the busiest port

Kassala
near the mountains · gardens and fruit

3 Questions and answers

Answer fast. Short answers are fine.

1 What is the capital of Sudan?
Khartoum.

2 Which city is the biggest?
Omdurman.

3 Where is Port Sudan?
On the Red Sea.

4 Is Port Sudan cooler than Khartoum in summer?
No, it isn't. It's hotter and more humid.

5 Which city is near the mountains?
Kassala.

6 What is Kassala famous for?
Its green gardens and its fruit.

4 New words

capital	the most important city of a country	meet	come together
across	on the other side of	port	a place where ships stop
famous	known by many people	special	different, and better than usual

CONVERSATION · LESSON 6

Do You Have a Bigger Size?

Buying clothes and comparing them

Ask for another size | Compare two things | Decide what to buy

1 Read the conversation

Adam needs a shirt for his cousin's wedding. He goes to a clothes shop with Omar.

SE	SELLER	Hello. Can I help you?
A	ADAM	Yes, please. I'm looking for a shirt for a wedding.
SE	SELLER	How about this blue one? It's very popular.
A	ADAM	It's nice, but it's too small. Do you have a bigger size?
SE	SELLER	Yes. Here's a large. Try it on.
A	ADAM	It's better. But it's more expensive than the white one.
SE	SELLER	The white one is cheaper, but the blue one is better quality.
O	OMAR	The blue one looks better on you, Adam.
A	ADAM	OK, I'm going to take the blue one.
SE	SELLER	Great choice!

Do You Have a Bigger Size? (continued)

2 Useful phrases

SAY WHAT YOU WANT
I'm looking for a shirt.

ASK FOR ANOTHER SIZE
Do you have a bigger size?
— Here's a large.

TRY IT
Try it on.

COMPARE
It's more expensive than the white one.

GIVE AN OPINION
The blue one looks better on you.

DECIDE
I'm going to take the blue one.

3 New words

popular	liked by many people	size	how big something is: small, medium, large
try it on	put on clothes to see if they are good for you	quality	how good something is choice	the thing you choose

STORY · LESSON 7

The Guests Are Coming

Guests are coming for tea, and the kitchen is almost empty. Read the story, then read Sara's story of that day.

Talk about food at home · Use some and any · Ask How much and How many

1 The story

It is Friday, and Sara's family is waiting for guests. Her aunt and uncle are coming for tea at five o'clock, with their four children. Sara's mother looks in the kitchen. "Is there any sugar?" she asks.

Sara opens the cupboard. "There is some sugar, but not much. There isn't any milk. And there aren't many cups. We have only six!" Her mother is worried. "We need a lot of things!"

So Sara takes her bag and goes to the shop. She buys a lot of sugar, two bottles of milk, some bread, and ten paper cups. Then she buys some cookies for the children. She looks in her bag. "How much money do I have now? Not much!"

At five o'clock, the guests arrive. Everybody drinks tea with a lot of sugar, and the children eat all the cookies. "There aren't any cookies left!" Lina says. Sara laughs. "Next time, I'm going to buy more!"

2 Questions and answers

Answer fast. Short answers are fine.

1 Who is coming for tea?

3 Point of view

Now Sara tells the story of last Friday.

S

Last Friday, my aunt and uncle came for tea at five o'clock, with their four children. My mother looked in the kitchen. "Is there any sugar?" she asked.

I opened the cupboard. There was some sugar, but not much. There wasn't any milk, and there weren't many cups. We had only six! "We need a lot of things!" my mother said.

So I went to the shop. I bought a lot of sugar, two bottles of milk, some bread, ten paper cups, and some cookies for the children. After that, I didn't have much money!

At five o'clock, the guests arrived. Everybody drank tea with a lot of sugar, and the children ate all the cookies. "There aren't any cookies left!" Lina said. Next time, I'm going to buy more!

4 What did you learn?

You learned some, any, much and many.

Some things we can count, like cups and cookies. Some things we can't count, like sugar, milk, and money.

	WE CAN COUNT: CUPS	WE CAN'T COUNT: SUGAR
Yes	There are some cups.	There is some sugar.
Not	There aren't any cups.	There isn't any milk.
Questions	Are there any cups?	Is there any milk?
How …?	How many cups?	How much sugar?
A big amount	a lot of cups	a lot of sugar

some for yes, any for not and questions
There is some bread. Is there any milk?

many if we can count, much if we can't
How many cups? How much money?

a lot of for both
a lot of cups, a lot of sugar

ASK THE TIME
How long is it going to take?
— About thirty minutes.

3 New words

order — ask for food in a restaurant or shop

delivery — bringing things to your home fries — thin pieces of potato cooked in oil

actually — in fact; we say it to change what we said

STORY · LESSON 10

The Lights Went Out

Last night, everyone at Adam's home was busy. Then the lights went out. Read the story, then read it again as it happens.

Say what was happening | Use when and while | Tell a story about a night

1 The story

Last night at eight o'clock, Adam's family was at home, and everybody was doing something. Adam was studying for his English test in his room. His mother was cooking dinner, and his father was watching the news on TV.

Hamza and his brother were playing a game on the computer. Their sister was talking to her friend on the phone. And the cat was sleeping on the sofa.

Suddenly, the lights went out. The TV stopped, the computer stopped, and the fan stopped. It was dark and very hot. "Oh no!" said Hamza. "I was winning!"

Adam's father found a flashlight. While his mother was looking for candles, Adam went outside. All the neighbors were outside, too. They were sitting in the street and talking under the stars. Nobody was watching TV, and nobody was playing on a phone. "This is nice," Adam thought. "Maybe we need more nights like this!"

2 Questions and answers

Answer fast. Short answers are fine.

1 What time did the lights go out?
At eight o'clock.

2 What was Adam doing?
He was studying for his English test.

3 Was his mother cooking or reading?
Cooking. She was cooking dinner.

4 What was his father watching?
The news on TV.

5 What were Hamza and his brother doing?
They were playing a game on the computer.

6 Who was talking on the phone?
Adam's sister.

7 Where was the cat sleeping?
On the sofa.

8 What happened suddenly?
The lights went out.

2 Questions and answers (continued)

9 Why was Hamza unhappy?
He was winning the game.

10 What was his mother looking for?
Candles.

11 What were the neighbors doing?
They were sitting in the street and talking.

12 Did Adam like the night?
Yes, he did. He thought it was nice.

3 Point of view

Now Adam tells it as it happens.

It's eight o'clock at night. I'm studying for my English test. My mother is cooking dinner, and my father is watching the news.

Hamza and my brother are playing a game on the computer. My sister is talking on the phone, and the cat is sleeping on the sofa.

Suddenly, the lights go out! It's dark and very hot. "Oh no!" says Hamza. "I was winning!"

While my mother is looking for candles, I go outside. All the neighbors are sitting in the street and talking under the stars. This is nice!

4 What did you learn?

You learned the past continuous.

We use it for something that was happening at a time in the past, often when something short happened.

HAPPENING AT THAT TIME	THEN SOMETHING HAPPENED
Adam was studying…	…when the lights went out.
They were playing a game…	…when the computer stopped.
While his mother was looking for candles,	Adam went outside.

4 What did you learn? (continued)

I · he · she · it → was + -ing
He was sleeping.

you · we · they → were + -ing
They were playing.

when and while
The long action: was …ing. The short action: past simple.

QUESTIONS What were you doing at eight o'clock last night? I was studying.

5 New words

suddenly	quickly and with no warning	fan	a machine that moves air to make you cool
dark	with no light	flashlight	a small light you hold in your hand
candles	sticks of wax that give light when they burn	neighbors	people who live near you

A Day at Work

Adam's father drives a bus. This is his day, and one strange day.

Talk about a job · Say what a workday is like · Tell about a strange day

1 Read

Adam's father, Mr. Hassan, is a bus driver. He drives the green bus from the bus station to the big market.

His day starts early. He wakes up at five o'clock, and he starts work at six. He drives the same road ten times a day. He knows many of his passengers, and they always say hello. At seven in the evening, he goes home, tired but happy.

His job is not easy. The roads are busy, the summer is very hot, and he can't stop for lunch when he wants. But he likes his job, because he helps people every day.

Last Tuesday was a strange day. Mr. Hassan was driving near the hospital when a woman stood up. "Please stop!" she said. "My son is sick!" He drove them to the hospital door. A week later, the woman came to the bus station with a big box of cookies for him.

2 His workday

Sorry I'm Late!

Coming in late, saying sorry, and good manners in class

Ask to come in | Say sorry and give a reason | Borrow something politely

1 Read the conversation

Class started at eight. At 8:20, Adam knocks on the classroom door.

A	ADAM	Excuse me, Mr. Ali. May I come in?
MA	MR. ALI	Yes, come in, Adam. You're late.
A	ADAM	I'm sorry. I was waiting for the bus when it broke down.
MA	MR. ALI	Oh no. Was it your father's bus?
A	ADAM	No, it wasn't! It was a different bus. I walked the rest of the way.
MA	MR. ALI	OK. Please sit down quietly. We were reading the story on page twelve.
A	ADAM	Thank you. Can I borrow a pen, please? I left mine at home.
S	SARA	Here you are.
A	ADAM	Thanks, Sara.
MA	MR. ALI	Next time, try to leave home earlier, Adam.

2 Useful phrases

ASK TO COME IN
May I come in?
— Yes, come in.

SAY SORRY
I'm sorry I'm late.

GIVE A REASON
I was waiting for the bus when it broke down.

BORROW SOMETHING
Can I borrow a pen, please?
— Here you are.

A CLASS RULE
Please sit down quietly.

GIVE ADVICE
Try to leave home earlier.
